SECTION 18 relative pronouns

grammar summary

who (whom) which that what

We use relative pronouns to join sentences to nouns.

The man was Welsh. (He)won the prize.

The man (who) won the prize was Welsh.

We use who for people and which for things: We can also use that for people and things.

There's the man who/that sold me my bikg. She said a word which/that I didn't hear.

We often leave out object pronouns.

Do you remember those photos (that) I showed you?

Prepositions can often go in two places.

The woman about whom we were talking walked into the room. (formal)

The woman that we were talking about walked into the room. (conversational)

We can use what to mean 'the thing(s) which'.

The children always eat what I cook.
